Welcome to all of our new members

Thank you from the club to Jody Glocke for the time she spent as vice president along with heading up the membership committee, your time and efforts are greatly appreciated. Jody has ventured into real estate and even though she will still be a member she will not be available as often as she'd like to continue in these positions.

We would also like to thank Sue McCauley for her time spent co-leading and growing the wire wrapping group, due to health reasons Sue will not be available to continue in this position.
